

TRADITIONAL HEALING – CARE AGREEMENT

Training and Affiliation as a Traditional Healer

While I am a trained and licensed medical doctor, I offer healing, spiritual counsel, life transition ceremonies and rituals, spiritual community service and teaching outside of my licensure as a physician but within my capacity as a Mará akáme initiated in the Huichol Shamanic Tradition and as a Plant Spirit Medicine healer, both affiliated with the Temple of Sacred Fire Healing. The Temple of Sacred Fire Healing is dedicated to preserving and offering traditional medicine ways for this and generations to come.

In 1998, I began training in Plant Spirit Medicine as a student of Eliot Cowan. Training included aspects of Classical Five Element Chinese Medicine, Plant Spirit Medicine healing approaches, plant studies and spiritual work building relationships with Plant Spirits. I completed the training in 1999 and was subsequently inducted into the Temple of Sacred Fire Healing as a Plant Spirit Medicine Healer. I continue stewardship with the medicine through work as a healer, outreach in the community, membership in the Plant Spirit Medicine Association, participation in advanced training, supervision and ongoing relationship with the plant spirits.

In 2000, shortly after completing my training in plant spirit medicine, I was called to begin a long and rigorous shamanic apprenticeship in the Huichol tradition. In 2014, I became initiated as a Mará akáme (traditional medicine person) in a ritual led by Tsaurririkame and Attending Shaman, Don Jose Sandoval, at La Laguna in Santa Maria Del Oro, Nayarit, Mexico. This means that I have assumed the responsibilities of a traditional healer of this lineage for the benefit of helping our people. In September 2015, I was inducted into the Sacred Fire Healing Ministry and authorized by the Temple of Sacred Fire Healing to work as a Mará akáme.

Mará akáme foster a living conversation with the Natural World as an eternally Divine manifestation. We offer healing, counsel and leadership from the place of that conversation. Ethical conduct is paramount to this path which promotes and maintains balance. We recognize the importance of respectful, humane relationships and understand being a Mará akáme is a life long commitment to serve the needs of community.

Location and preparation to help optimize conditions for healing.

- It is ideal to see you at my home office in Weaverville, outside around a special consecrated fire surrounded by nature. If needed, I treat people in their home, the hospital or indoors at my home office.
- Unless otherwise indicated, to prepare for your session, you will need to fast from both food and water (except for essential prescription medications) for 12 hours prior to each appointment.
- Also, please do not wear any make – up, perfume, scented lotion or essential oils, 12 hours prior.
- Feel free to bring a snack with you for after your session.
- If you are able, give yourself time and spaciousness to walk the land before or after your session. You will see a trail map posted on the wood shed in the parking area. The whole loop takes about 45 minutes. This place can augment healing. Please, however, use the trails at your own risk.
- Please bring a signed copy of the last page of this care agreement.
